

How to Order
Johns Hopkins University
Teaching Materials for
*A History of US (HOFUS)

Order directly from Amazon.com.

This can be confusing. Amazon is littered with HOFUS materials old and new. Various resellers have posted older versions of our teaching and student materials, and Oxford University Press also sells its own slender teaching guides (which include excerpts from the JHU materials) on Amazon. For simplicity, we have repackaged the materials; you need a Teaching Guide and a Resource Book for each title! See note below.

How to search Amazon.com and actually find the JHU materials:

1. Enter the title of the book + either “Teaching Guide” or “Resource Book.” You need to order both the Teaching Guide and the Resource Book to have the complete curriculum. For example, type “Liberty for All? Teaching Guide” or “Liberty for All Resource Book.” This will result in multiple versions of teaching materials, so make sure you order the Johns Hopkins materials (blue cover) with a publication date of 2010. (Older publication date versions may not be complete!) The books list for $40 and $35 respectively, so your total cost should be $75.

2. Alternate method: enter ISBN numbers on Amazon.
